

Randy Bentele

Randy Bentele is a certified PMP with 25 years of experience delivering infrastructure technology and application software solutions. Currently, Randy is the Vice President, Enterprise Delivery for Waddell & Reed. He has led large global organizations and used his expertise to successfully deliver projects in a broad range of industries including finance, telecommunications, human resources, engineering, and distribution. He is an expert in process development and improvement having established enterprise program offices for several fortune 500 companies. Additionally, he has successfully led an organization through a level 3 CMMi assessment. Randy also gives his time to variety of service organizations by serving on several boards and using his skills to manage large events, such as, serve days (up to 500 volunteers), concerts, conferences, and fairs. Academically, Randy earned a B.S. in Computer Science and Business Administration and an MBA with an emphasis in finance from Rockhurst University. He lives in Overland Park, KS with his wife, Cindy and their 4 children.