

Tom Patterson

Name: Tom Patterson

Job Title: Leadership Development Consultant

Current Job Key Accountabilities:

Tom Patterson is an Executive Coach who has worked with Senior Executives for the past 15 years.

Professional Experience

Tom began his career with as an Educational Consultant. His primary focus is in the areas of customer service, team development, project management and leadership development. Tom is currently certified in over 30 courses in Management and Professional Education.

Tom has worked with Executives at Sprint, Dell and Cisco, IBM and several non-profit organizations.

He has been heavily involved in coaching Executives in Sales, Marketing, Network and Care. Tom has also been one of the project managers for several Leadership Programs, which enables leaders to develop their careers as well as their direct reports.

Tom has assisted in several change initiatives that impacts organizations as a whole as well as working with specific organizations in developing their change strategies. Tom also has facilitated Executive Academies, Executive forums and high potential development programs.