

Nancy J. Petersen, PMP[®], PMI-RMP[®] has been an active KC PMI chapter member since 2001; and active volunteer since 2003. Nancy earned the PMP[®] certification in January 2005 and the PMI-RMP[®] certification in February 2011. She holds a MBA in MIS from Avila University.

Nancy teaches for two local universities. She teaches undergraduate and graduate courses in project management, program/portfolio management, contracts and procurement, risk management, and management information systems. Before teaching, she spent 20 years practicing project and program management for Fortune 500 companies as well as independent consultant.